

Update Notice

For Accumulate Plus – issued 1 April 2021, relating to a change in the issuer of the trustee’s insurance policies for death and disablement cover.

Change of insurer name

Death and disability insurance cover in Accumulate Plus was previously provided through insurance policies that the fund’s trustee held with The Colonial Mutual Life Assurance Society (CMLA) (ABN 12 004 021 809).

The Federal Court recently approved the statutory asset transfer, under Part 9 of the Life Insurance Act 1995, of CMLA’s life insurance business to AIA Australia Limited (AIA) (ABN 79 004 837, AFSL 230043).

Effective 1 April 2021, AIA has automatically replaced CMLA as the issuer of our insurance policies.

There are no changes to the terms, conditions, entitlements or premium rates for cover in Accumulate Plus as a result of this change.

The change does not affect the assessment or payment of any claims. For claims that are currently in progress, your case manager will generally remain the same, but you may notice that any communications directly from the insurer or your case manager will reference AIA.

What is an Update Notice?

We may change features of the fund as described in a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or Reference Guide from time to time.

We’ll notify you of changes that adversely affect you as required by law. If changes aren’t materially adverse, we may issue an Update Notice before or after the change instead of updating the PDS or Reference Guide.

It’s possible that changes may occur without prior notice to you.

You should check for any Update Notices or the most up-to-date PDS or Reference Guides available free of charge from oursuperfund.com.au/pds or by calling us on 1800 023 928.

You should read this Update Notice in conjunction to the relevant PDS and Reference Guides – it’s not intended to be read as a document in its own right.

General advice warning about using or relying on this information

The information in this Update Notice is general information only and does not take into account your individual objectives, financial situation or needs.

You should consider the information and how appropriate it is to your objectives, financial situation and needs, before making any decisions.

You should seek financial advice tailored to your personal circumstances from an authorised financial adviser.
