If at any time it is necessary to fill the positions of more than one Elected Member Director, including where positions are to be filled by both an election to fill a vacancy at the end of an Elected Member Director's term and a by-election to fill a casual vacancy or vacancies, a single election may be held for all such positions, in accordance with the procedures in this clause 2. The Procedures are as follows:

- (a) the Company Secretary (Secretary) shall call or cause the calling of nominations for election as Elected Member Directors by giving notice to each branch and department:
 - (i) in the case of an election to fill a vacancy at the end of an Elected Member Director's term, during the preceding three months in the relevant year in which the term of an Elected Member Director is due to expire; and
 - (ii) no later than 30 days prior to any by-election;
- (b) nominations in respect of persons eligible to become an Elected Member Director shall be in writing and signed by not less than two voting members and include or be accompanied by a written statement from the nominee signifying the person's consent to the nomination and a willingness to act if elected;
- (c) the period allowed for nominations shall not be less than 14 days and a nomination will not be effective unless it is received by the Secretary on or before the date specified in the notice calling for nominations as the last date upon which nominations can be received;
- (d) if by the required date there are no nominations or insufficient nominations to enable each office of Elected Member Director, in respect of which nominations have been called, to be filled:
 - (i) the Secretary shall call for fresh nominations; and
 - (ii) notwithstanding paragraph (c) above, the Secretary may extend the closing date for such fresh nominations but in all other respects the election shall be conducted in accordance with these procedures;
- (e) the Trustee Nomination's Committee will review all nominations in accordance with the Fit and Proper Policy to determine eligibility to stand for election.
- (f) in a case where the number of eligible nominations received equals the number of positions as Elected Member Director to be filled or where, after the Procedures set out in paragraph (d) and (e) above have been followed, the number of eligible nominations received is less than the number of positions as Elected Director to be filled, the Secretary shall declare that the eligible person or eligible persons nominated have been elected (with the particular positions to be taken being determined via a random draw of the eligible persons nominated, conducted by the Secretary on the basis that the first name drawn shall take the position having the longest term of office, and so on) and the Secretary shall notify each branch and department accordingly;

- (g) if the number of eligible persons nominated exceeds the number of vacant positions, a poll of voting members shall be held to decide the election;
- (h) in the event that a poll is required, the eligible nominations will be notified to all branches and departments and a secret ballot held to decide the election;
- (i) the Superannuation Corporation shall appoint a person to be the Returning Officer who, subject to these Procedures, will determine the manner of conducting the poll and conduct the poll;

- (k) a poll of voting members may be conducted in paper or electronic form as determined by the Returning Officer. Ballot forms may be issued in paper or electronic format as appropriate;
- (l) voting members may record only one vote for each vacancy to be filled at the poll and:
 - (i) in the event that there is only one vacancy to be filled at the poll, the candidate who attains the greatest number of votes shall become the Elected Member Director; and

- (m) in the event that the Board does not confirm it is satisfied that the conditions as to fitness and propriety have been met in relation to a candidate (as described in clause 6 below) within 90 days of the office being vacated, or such other period as the Board determines to be reasonable, the elected candidate will no longer be eligible to take office consequent upon the election. The candidate with the next greatest number of votes will, subject to these Procedures, then become eligible to hold the office of Elected Member Director; and in the event that more than one vacancy was to be filled at the poll, the candidate who would have otherwise taken the position which has the second longest term of office will, subject to these Procedures, take the position which has the longest term of office. The person who attained the next greatest number of votes will then be eligible for the position which has the second longest term of office, and so on;
- (n) the Returning Officer shall supervise the counting of votes and any question as to the admissibility of a ballot form shall be determined by the Returning Officer, whose decision shall be final;

- (q) the Returning Officer will notify the Secretary of the result of the election not later than 14 days after the poll and the result shall forthwith be notified to each branch and department;
- (r) subject to paragraph (m) above, if any question arises as to the regularity or validity of a nomination, or as to the voting at any poll or otherwise as to any election, it will be determined by the Superannuation Corporation; and
- (s) a retiring Elected Member Director may, if eligible, be elected for a further term or terms.

3. Procedures for Election of Alternate Member Director

Where an election for an Alternate Member Director is required, the Procedures for the election of the Elected Member Directors set out in clause 2 above, shall apply as Procedures for the election of the Alternate Member Director, as if each reference to an Elected Member Director or Elected Member Directors were a reference to the Alternate Member Director.

4. Eligibility to Vote for Elected Director

In order to be eligible to vote at elections for Elected Member Directors and the Alternate Member Director, a person must be a voting member.

5. Concurrent Elections

- (a) An election for the office of one or more Elected Member Directors may be held concurrently with an election for the office the Alternate Member Director.
- (b) Where there is a concurrent election for both an Elected Member Director or Elected Member Directors and the Alternate Member Director, the poll for the election of the Elected Member Director or Elected Member Directors is to be declared first. 6. Commencement of Office

A candidate for the office of Member Director or Alternate Member Director (whether elected in accordance with the procedures in clauses 2 and 3 above, or by appointment) will only commence to hold the office of Director of the Superannuation Corporation when the Board confirms it is satisfied that the conditions as to fitness and propriety in relation to the candidate have been met.

The Board has determined that a candidate for the role of Director must demonstrate and satisfy the following conditions:

- (a) Minimum of five years relevant business experience in an executive level role¹;
- (b) Comprehension - the ability to understand the advice received from technical experts;

- (ii) educational or technical qualifications, knowledge and skills relevant to the duties and responsibilities of the Superannuation Corporation.

E. Alternate Member Director Filling a Vacancy

Where an Alternate Member Director is appointed, in the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of any of Member Directors 'A', 'C' or 'E' (whether a casual vacancy or a vacancy occurring at the expiry of a Member Director's term), the vacancy shall be filled during any period pending the election or appointment of a replacement, by the Alternate Member Director, provided that the Alternate Member Director shall fill only one such vacancy at any one time and whilst filling such vacancy, shall not act as Alternate Member Director in respect of any other Member Director.

F. Removal

¹ Executive level role is defined as holding a level 3 or higher position in the Group, level 4 for Bankwest roles, (or equivalent position in an external organisation) for a minimum of five years.

Notwithstanding the term of appointment in section C above, the term of each Member Director and Alternate Member Director is subject to the Director continuing to meet the requirements of these Procedures.
