

Nominating Commonwealth Bank Group Super as your fund when you start a new job

Did you know that you can ask any employer to pay super contributions to your Accumulate Plus account?

When you begin a new job, your employer should ask you where you'd like them to pay your super contributions.

If you choose to have contributions paid into your Accumulate Plus account in our fund, you must provide your employer with a copy of the attached Compliance letter, along with a completed Super choice – fund nomination form, or your employer may have their own standard choice of fund form that they give you.

You'll need to complete the following sections of the Super choice – fund nomination form before giving it to your employer:

- Part 1: Complete this section with your Accumulate Plus membership/account name and number.
- Part 2: It's important that you sign and date part 2 of the form – if you don't sign the form, your super fund choice request will be incomplete and your employer won't be able to begin contributing to your Accumulate Plus account.

You can find out more about receiving employer contributions to Accumulate Plus on our website, oursuperfund.com.au/employer-conts.

If you have any questions, please call us on 1800 023 928 between 8am and 7pm (AEST/AEDT) Monday to Friday.

Thank you for continuing to allow us to help you build your financial future.

Commonwealth Bank Group Super Compliance Letter

September 2021

To whom it may concern

Commonwealth Bank Group Super (the fund) is governed by the Trust Deed dated 11 July 1996 (as amended).

For the purposes of section 24 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, we confirm that the fund:

- is a resident regulated superannuation fund within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SIS Act)
- is not subject to a direction by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority under Section 63 of the SIS Act not to accept contributions
- has not been subject to such a direction at any time since the beginning of the day on which the Benefit Certificate issued by Towers Watson Australia Pty Ltd in respect of External Employers of the fund, dated 31 January 2019 (a copy is available online) is expressed to take effect.

It is the trustee's intention to maintain the fund at all times as a complying superannuation fund within the meaning of subsection 42(1) of the SIS Act. The trust deed allows for External Employers to make employer contributions to the fund, subject to rules determined from time to time by the trustee.

Yours sincerely

Scott Durbin
Chief Executive Officer
Commonwealth Bank Group Super

For and on behalf of the trustee, Commonwealth Bank Officers Superannuation Corporation Pty Limited.

Super choice – fund nomination

Use of this form

You can use this form to nominate your Accumulate Plus account to receive employer contributions, instead of completing a 'Superannuation (Super) Standard Choice Form' that you may have received from your employer. You must provide your employer with a copy of our separate Information Sheet and compliance letter (see over the page), along with this form.

Some employees can't choose their own super fund – speak to your employer or visit www.ato.gov.au (search 'super choice') for more details.
